

grade A classroom

Wait time

A very simple, but often a much-needed
reminder...

To just wait

Ask a question.

Count to 3 in your head before engaging with any responses.

Make a conscious effort to offer wait time when you ask a question...and just notice the difference it makes to participation and the quality of student responses.

If it helps, write WT on the back of your hand or the corner of the board as a subtle reminder.